DEATH FOLLOWED SUDDEN SEIZURE

Secretary Hay Stricken But Few Minutes Before End Came.

WAS THOUGHT TO BE BETTER

Expectation Friday Night Was That He Would Be Able to Sit up Yesterday—Had Turn for the Worse Just After Midnight and Expired in Less Than Half an Hour—Sorrow Through the Land and Expressions of Regret Over the World.

Newbury, N. H., July 1.—The body of Secretary of State John Hay, whose unexpected death early today has caused sorrow through the land and evoked expressions of sympathy and regret the world over, lies tonight in a room of "The Fells," the quaint gambrel-roofed mansion, which for fourteen years had been the summer home of the Hay family.

Just one week ago tonight the Secretary arrived at the village from Washington, wearing with the cares of State and anticipating a "long summer's rest." Tonight the same launch in which Mr. Hay made the short trip from Newbury to the landing at "The Fells" conveyed relatives of Mrs. Hay to the cottage, where they brought sympathy and help to the stricken woman and her only son.

ONLY TWO OF FAMILY PRESENT.

The only members of the Secretary's family at "The Fells" when the end came were Mrs. Hay and Clarence Hay, Mrs. James A. Wadsworth, of Genesee, N. Y., a daughter, has been ill recently and had not been at Lake Sunapee this season. Mrs. Payne Whitney, another daughter, is on her way to Europe.

Mr. Hay died at 12:25 o'clock this morning. The last moments of the statesman were peaceful, and the end came almost without a struggle.

The suddenness of it all was staggering. The Secretary yesterday had passed the most comfortable day since his illness began a week ago. He was to sit up today. The patient had bidden his wife and physicians good night at 10 o'clock last night. An hour later he was sleeping quietly.

Almost at the stroke of twelve the Secretary was seized with a turn. He called feebly and a nurse responded. The sick man was breathing with great difficulty. Dr. Scudder was speedily summoned, and it required but a glance for him to determine that the end was but few minutes away.

The household was aroused. The wife reached her husband as he was breathing his last. The son, Clarence Hay, hurried into the sick room, but was too late.

CAUSE OF DEATH.

Death was caused by pulmonary embolism, according to Dr. Scudder. The patient did not suffer greatly in his last moments. Aside from great difficulty in breathing there was no struggle. Stimulants were ineffective. The Secretary lapsed into unconsciousness and seemed to fall asleep at last.

The consternation of the household was complete and it remained for Dr. Scudder to assume charge of affairs. After two hours the physician was driven to the village, where half a dozen telegrams were dispatched. The first went to President Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay. The second was addressed to the State Department at Washington. The others were sent to friends of the family. Dr. Scudder returned to "The Fells."

The bulletin announcing the death read as follows: "Secretary of State John Hay died at 12:25 this morning. The signs immediately preceding his death were those of pulmonary embolism. Mr. Hay's condition during all of Friday had been entirely satisfactory."

COMPANY OF REID IN GREAT DEMAND

American Ambassador to England Embarrassed by Number of Invitations

WILL CELEBRATE FOURTH OF JULY

Miss Jean Reid Has Already Become Favorite in British Capital.

London, July 1.—So much in request is the company of the American ambassador at social entertainments that Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid are under a continual shower of invitations, and the ambassador laughingly told an acquaintance the other day that the most difficult and delicate part of his mission over here was to decide which he should accept.

Mr. Reid is usually at the embassy offices in Victoria Street from noon until half-past one, the time being fully taken up with official business and receiving callers. He is usually launching out or entertaining friends at Dorchester House for the midday meal.

The afternoon is for the most part devoted to calling or receiving callers at his residence, and in the evening he and Mrs. Reid are either entertaining friends at dinner, are guests at banquets or dining at one of the great houses in the West End.

Miss Jean Reid has already become quite popular over here. During the week she has been entertaining Miss Katherine Barney, of New York. Mrs. C. D. Barney, by the way, is expected in London on Monday. She and her daughter are sailing on Wednesday.

Many of his countrymen have already had experience of the new Ambassador's hospitality, which is even more bounteous here than at his magnificent country place, Ophir Farm. It is expected the great house in Park Lane will be filled to overflowing on Tuesday, at the Fourth of July reception, and Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid have sent cards to all Americans who have left their names at the Embassy offices and caused it to be known through the newspapers that any Americans in London that day may be assured of welcome.

The American Society in London will hold its annual Fourth of July banquet at the Hotel Cecil. Among those present will be the American Ambassador, the Marquess of Lansdowne, the Belgian, Chinese, Danish, Greek, Mexican, Netherlands, Portuguese, Swedish and Swiss Ministers, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Rear Admiral Watson, U. S. N., and Lord Mayor of Liverpool.

Woman's Missionary Meeting. The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Convention for Holston Conference, met in Main Street Methodist church on Wednesday night of last week, and continued to hold three meetings daily until and including Sunday. Everything New and Original.

A good attraction will always draw a paying crowd, and none know this fact better than people who have spent years in the show business. The Great Van Amburg Shows come this year with more and better attractions than ever before, and is filling its tents wherever it exhibits. See the grand free street parade in the forenoon on day of exhibition. More and better acrobats, tumblers and trapeze performers, and more funny clowns and trained horses and ponies than any show on the road. The Van Amburg Show will arrive in Tazewell on its own special train Tuesday, July 11, and give two exhibitions, 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. J. A. Stubbfield, who is recording secretary, was also present as was also Mrs. Bentley, of Knoxville, corresponding secretary.

On Sunday morning the annual sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Morrell, presiding elder of Tazewell District. The church was filled to overflowing and the sermon of Rev. Morrell was an excellent one.

On Sunday afternoon an entertainment was given by the Children's Missionary Society of Tazewell, assisted by children who were delegates from societies of other churches in the Holston Conference.

Sunday night the closing session of the meeting was held and several very interesting papers were read. Mrs. Mary O'Keefe was made a life member of the society at this session and one hundred dollars was subscribed by the congregation in a very few minutes to pay for this membership.

ROOSEVELT IS EXPECTING AN EARLY TRUCE.

President Sends All His Energies Upon Arranging an Armistice, Fearing a Battle Might Render Peace Impossible.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 3.—Negotiations looking to peace in the far East are regarded here as having assumed a satisfactory form. President Roosevelt has expressed his pleasure at the arrangements already affected but has not abated his efforts to induce the belligerent nations to agree to an armistice prior to the formal convention of the envoys.

Through the President as an intermediary exchanges between Russia and Japan now are proceeding and the prospects for the conclusion of a truce pending the result of the peace conference are believed to be brighter than they had been in any time heretofore.

The President is extremely anxious to avert if possible another general engagement between the two great armies facing each other in Manchuria, and all his efforts are being directed to that end. In his judgment, which also is that of the other equally interested Powers, a battle between the Russian and Japanese forces at this time would be a calamity, out of which could come no advantage to either of the warring nations. In fact, in his belief it might be seriously detrimental to the peace movement. If, indeed, it should not actually imperil it, it can be said that the President hopes and believes that an armistice may be arranged, perhaps within a few days.

Aside from his routine official work, which Secretary Loeb brought to his attention, the President had a comparatively quiet day at Sagamore Hill. No engagements for visitors were made for today.

DEATH HARVEST FOR THRESHERS

Threshing Machine Engine in Henry County Blows up, Killing Four

MORE MAY DIE OF INJURIES

Accident on Eans Plantation, Near Axton — Fall Details Lacking — Danville

Physicians Rush to the Scene.

Danville, Va., July 3.—Four men were killed outright and seven others were so seriously injured that at least a portion of them will die, by the explosion of a threshing machine engine on the plantation of Rush Eans, near Axton, Henry county, this afternoon.

The dead:

C. L. BULLINGTON.

WALTER MARTIN.

LUTHER HILER.

JOHN STOKES.

The names of the injured cannot be ascertained tonight. The accident occurred far in the country away from telegraphic and telephonic communication. The meager account of the accident which is known here was brought to Axton by one of the men who escaped the explosion, was so excited that he was unable to give a connected account of the affair. The news came to Danville by telephone from Axton, the operator leaving immediately for the scene, thus cutting off further communication. Physicians from this city have hurried to the scene. Nothing further can be learned until tomorrow morning as there are no trains from Axton until then.

KNIAZ POTEMKINE STILL

IN CHARGE OF MUTINEERS

Georgi Pobiedonostz's Crew Surrendered.

British Steamer Seized and Searched

Crew of Cruiser Minnie in Revolt

Odessa, July 3.—The surrender of the Georgi Pobiedonostz was formally carried out this morning. The warship's officers returned from Nikolajeff, went on board and picked out the ring leaders of the mutiny and several of their followers, all of whom were sent ashore.

A torpedo boat destroyer and a gunboat arrived here during the night, bringing Rear Admiral Chouknin, the commander of the Black Sea fleet.

BRITISH STEAMER SEIZED.

The torpedo destroyer upon her arrival here fired a blank shot across the bow of the British steamer Cranley, which was lying off Fontana, for the purpose of taking off British subjects if necessary. The destroyer signalled the Cranley to accompany her inside the harbor. The Cranley complied, the destroyer in the meanwhile keeping her guns trained on the steamer.

Later Russian officials took possession of the Cranley and searched her for revolutionary refugees. The British consul general protested to the governor, saying there was no reason to suppose that any refugees were on board the Cranley.

The officials, in the presence of the vice consul, carefully inspected the vessel and found no trace of revolutionists and the Russian officials apologized to the consul general.

Sixty-seven mutineers from the Georgi Pobiedonostz were brought ashore and imprisoned in the citadel.
